

WELCOME

While you are settling in....

Please take a few minutes to complete the Self-Awareness Checklist on the tables.

THANK YOU!

Feminism and Our History

“Feminism is the radical notion that women are people”

-Cheris Kramarae

-Paula Treichler

Biblical Times

Roman Law

Mid-19th Century
England

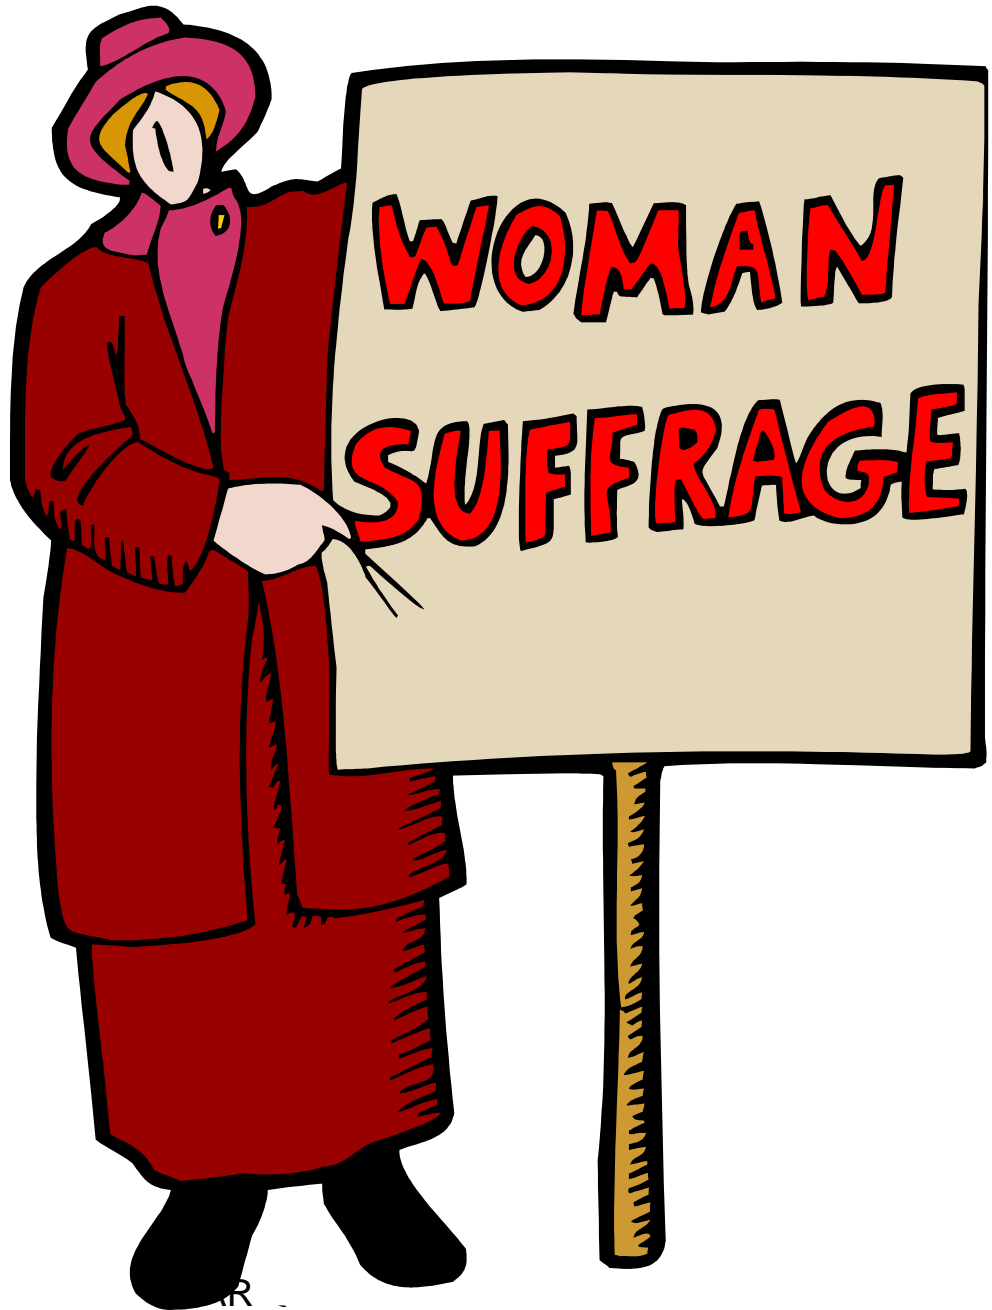

Ancient Egypt

English Common
Law

The First Wave

The Second Wave

TABLE DISCUSSION

1. What are some stereotypes about feminists or “women’s libbers?”
2. How did we form these stereotypes?
3. Did the reading assignment change your perceptions?

*“It has been my belief that it is impossible to end a single oppression;
to work to end one oppression requires us to work to end them all.”*

Lydia Guy

Insert DVD